en in our climate, in which water is not precious •—this year we are deluged. When water fails itians baptize with sand. As for me, it is not the of the Incarnation that I see in religion, but the of social order. Heaven .suggests an idea of which .saves the rich from being massacred by the > look at it another way, religion is a sort of in-or vaccine which, while satisfying our sense of •natural, guarantees us from the charlatans and :uans: the priests are better than the Caglioatroa, 8, and all the dreamers of (Jennuny.

a special Tribunal to judge public functionaries n infractions of the lawn. There mu.st be some exercise of power in such a matter, and this)t be left in the hands of the Sovereign, lu'cnune ither abuse, it or neglect to use it. I complain f of the number of arbitrary arts I am made to they would come with more propriety from mieh J. I want the State to be governed according nd that the things that have to he done despite should be legalized by the operation of a duly *d body.

•ight houra after peace with England is itigncd, it out foreign produce and manufacture*, and 'avigation Act that will exclude all but French ti our ports. There will be a tremendous outcry, x years' time we almll be, in the fiillext pro*-

Joseph.) Shoot without pity any